Oldways also offers other online CPE courses:

- The African Heritage Diet: An Innovative Tool for Combating Diabetes, Obesity, and Other Diet-Related Chronic Diseases (Webinar)

This level 1 course offers an in-depth overview of the African Heritage Diet as an evidence-based, culturally meaningful, nutrition intervention guide. Health professionals will find information and tools to help clients of African heritage prevent and manage many of today's chronic, diet-related diseases through traditional foods. 2 Credit Hours.

- The Mediterranean Diet

Oldways created this course for Today's Dietitian, which is available in the Today's Dietitian CE Learning Library. This level 2 course explores the key characteristics of the Mediterranean diet, provides a research update on the health benefits of the diet, and indicates how the diet can be incorporated into existing MNT. 2 Credit Hours.
